TECH TIPS

Versatile VE-Series Panel Kits

Viking's unique VE-Series panel kits combine a surface mount box with a blank aluminum panel. These kits are easily customized to mount a card reader, keypad, or other component such as a switch or custom accessory.

The VE-Series panel kits feature heavy-duty construction in an assortment of colors and sizes. The weather resistant boxes are designed to be surface mounted to a wall, post, single or double gang box, or any Viking gooseneck pedestal.

The blank front panel is made from durable aluminum, making it easy to drill, cut or form. The panel is straight lined and coated with a tough clear powder coating to resist corrosion.

Each VE-Series panel kit comes complete with surface mount box, front panel, screws and a gasket for easy installation.

Features:

- Surface mounts to a wall, post, single or double gang box
- Compatible with Viking gooseneck pedestals
- Blank aluminum panel is easy to customize
- Adds weather and vandal resistance
- Heavy duty construction
- Available in many colors and sizes

WHAT'S ON YOUR HOT DOG?

Hot dog toppings are as unique as the regions they come from. You'll find everything from spicy chili to cream cheese piled on top of your dog!

CHECK OUT THESE FLAVOR COMBOS...

NEW YORK CITY: In the Big Apple, hot dogs are served with steamed onions and pale deli-style yellow mustard.

CHICAGO: Dogs are layered with yellow mustard, dark green relish, chopped raw onion, a pickle spear, peppers, tomato slices, topped with a dash of celery salt and served in a poppy seed bun. (No ketchup allowed!)

KANSAS CITY: Dogs are served with sauerkraut and melted Swiss cheese on a sesame seed bun.

COLORADO: The "Rockie Dog" is a foot-long dog with grilled peppers, kraut and onions.

BOSTON: The "Fenway Frank" is boiled and grilled then served in a New England-style bun with mustard and relish - sometimes topped with Boston baked beans

DETROIT: This favorite of Michiganders features a meaty chili (no beans!) topped with mustard and onion.

WEST VIRGINIA: Hot dogs are topped with chili, mustard and coleslaw on a steamed bun.

NEW JERSEY: Home of the "Italian Dog" - a hot dog in thick pizza bread topped with onions, peppers, and deep fried potatoes.

PHILADELPHIA: The "Philly Dog" features an all-beef hot dog with a fish cake inside the bun, topped with tangy slaw and spicy mustard.

CLEVELAND: Home of the "Polish Dog" - a kielbasa served on a bun covered with french fries, sweet barbecue sauce or hot sauce, and coleslaw.

CINCINNATI: These delicious dogs are topped with Cincinnati-style chili (made with cinnamon and chocolate) plus a pile of grated cheddar cheese.

THE CAROLINAS: The "Slaw Dog" features a beef frank topped with creamy coleslaw, chili, raw onions, and yellow mustard.

CALIFORNIA: There are many hot dog varieties in California, but a popular choice is a bacon-wrapped dog with grilled onions and peppers.

SEATTLE: Hot dogs are split in half and grilled before being put in a toasted bun, topped with cream cheese and grilled onions.

ALASKA: The "Reindeer Dog" is a caribou sausage served in a steamed bun with grilled onions that are sautéed in Coca-Cola.
